The Crusader

1959

*Central Catholic High
Grand Island
Nebraska*

Another nine-month sea voyage is completed by the Crusaders of Central Catholic High as the Maris Stella, guided by the Star of the Sea, sails majestically toward the shore.

As the 1959 Crusader takes its place among the annals of our Alma Mater, we hope that its pages may recall and remind each Centralite that the vigilant beacon, Star of the Sea, from her Watchtower, lights the way as he continues to journey toward the Eternal Shores.

His Excellency
The Most Rev.
John L. Paschang
Bishop of Grand Island

Dear Students of Central Catholic High:

Those of us who are familiar with the revelations made by our Blessed Lady to Saint Bernadette of Lourdes a century ago, and in more recent times to the pious children of Fatima can hardly escape the conviction that Mary is most anxious that we should adopt the practice of consecrating ourselves to her frequently, yea even daily. Since you have chosen Mary, Star of the Sea, as the theme of your current year book, The Crusader, and in keeping with the wishes of our Blessed Mother, allow me to suggest a little prayer whereby you may dedicate yourselves to her, the Stella Maris. This prayer has a noble history, although I suspect it is not too well known. It is touching in its simplicity. May I express the hope that many who may scan The Crusader will be moved to incorporate this act of dedication into their daily devotions.

"O Mary, Mother of the Incarnate Word and our sweetest Mother, we are here at thy feet as a new day arises—another great gift of the Lord. We place in thy hands and in thy heart our whole being. We will be thine in will, in thought, in heart, and in body.

Do thou with motherly kindness form in us this day a new life, the life of thy Jesus.

Direct and accompany, O Queen of Heaven, even our least actions with thy motherly inspiration, so that all may be pure and acceptable at the moment of the Holy and Immaculate Sacrifice.

Make us holy, O Good Mother, holy as Jesus has commanded us and as thy Heart asks and so ardently desires. Amen.

Yours in the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
Star of the Sea,

John L. Paschang

OUR PASTORS

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Leo Keating, V.G.
Pastor of St. Mary's

Rev. Father Anthony Egging
Pastor of Blessed Sacrament

We pay tribute to our pastors, for without their aid the Catholic Youth of Grand Island and surrounding areas could not have the opportunity of a Catholic education. Their fatherly care places at our disposal many needs necessary in our high school career. For their interest in our spiritual and intellectual growth we are very grateful.

OUR CHAPEL

The chapel is the very heart of our school. It is the place where refuge is sought in times of doubts, trials, and temptations. Here we can bring all our life's problems and Mary and her Divine Son will never fail us in the hour of need.

"Ave Maria thy children are kneeling
Words of endearment are whispered to thee
Softly thy spirit upon us is stealing
Sinless and beautiful, Star of the Sea."

Our

Reverend James Naughtin

Dear Graduates of 1959:

A young convert recently remarked to me: "One thing happily astonished me throughout my instructions and it has continued to amaze me very wonderfully during these two years of my Catholic life and that is the tremendous emphasis the Catholic Church places on the care and salvation of a soul." So fundamental a thesis, is, for the convert, a constant source of wonderful amazement. In his brief statement, he simply states exactly the very purpose of the existence of the Catholic Church—which purpose we know so well. Her schools, as an integral part of the Church, have that sole purpose of existence also.

Seniors, if you leave Central Catholic with one thought alone namely, "If I follow the directives of the Catholic Church, confirmed in me through my Catholic education, then, indeed, will my salvation be assured," then our efforts for you and your efforts for yourselves at Central Catholic will not have been in vain. Remember always: "You cannot go to Hell if you do what the Catholic Church tells you."

May the guiding hand and protective mantle of Mary, your "Star on your Sea of Life" aid you in accomplishing this, and may God's Richest Blessings be upon all of you in the years ahead.

Sincerely and prayerfully,

Father Naughtin

Faculty

As the Maris Stella sails on the seas, her course is steered by the captains—the Faculty. In order to avoid any shipwrecks, they sail out under the banner of Mary, Star of the Sea.

As we seniors bid farewell to our teachers, classmates, and friends we breathe a prayer of thanks for the happy, profitable years spent at Central Catholic High under the guidance of the Faculty.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH, C. S. J.

June 16, 1958 commemorated the 75th anniversary of the Foundation of the Sisters of St. Joseph in the State of Kansas.

In 1883 six zealous Sisters, under the superiorship of Mother Stanislaus Leary, traveled from their Motherhouse in Rochester, New York, to open a new mission field on the Kansas frontier.

Today the Congregation numbers some 600. Reverend Mother Helena is the present Mother General at Nazareth Motherhouse, Concordia, Kansas.

The work of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Concordia now extends into six states and into eleven Archdioceses and Dioceses of the Catholic Church. The Sisters staff 25 elementary schools, 10 high schools and one senior college—Marymount College, Salina, Kansas.

In addition to these schools the Sisters of St. Joseph also conduct 7 hospitals, a home for the aged, and a diocesan charity center for social service work.

SISTERS OF ST. DOMINIC, O. P.

The first American community of Dominican Sisters in the United States was formed in 1822 by a small group of young girls near Springfield, Kentucky. The infant community was guided and directed by Father Wilson, O. P., assisted by Father Miles, who later became the first Bishop of Tennessee. Mother Angela Sansbury was the first Mother General.

Mother Mary Julia, O. P., is the present Mother General. From the Motherhouse at St. Catharine, Kentucky, she directs the apostolic work of her sisters in southern, eastern, and middle western states, as well as Puerto Rico.

In Nebraska the Dominican Sisters staff schools in Omaha, Bellevue, Lincoln, Grand Island, Hastings, Kearney, McCook, Ogallala, Greeley, Spalding, and Cedar Rapids, and hospitals in McCook and Spalding.

These fifty-nine juniors have completed another nine-month expedition. The year was a preparation to reach the highest rank possible as academic seamen. As the crew reached the shore, guided by the Star of the Sea, the goal was attained. The juniors will step into the senior ranks next year hoping for even better and bigger accomplishments.

Freshman Class

The first year at C.C.H. for the freshman crew has provided many opportunities to battle bravely with strong winds and gales. The good will and co-operation they have manifested indicate three successful years ahead for these Maris Stella sailors. As they terminate the 1959 cruise, they are promoted a step higher in the ranks of a seaman

LATIN II

Enthusiastic Sophomores study Latin legends as well as authentic Roman history.

LATIN I

Freshmen are eager to learn the fundamentals of Latin because it helps to master the mother tongue.

ENGLISH IV

As the other students listen, Dave Manning recites Milton's sonnet, "On His Blindness."

ENGLISH Broadens and Enriches Life

ENGLISH II

Because of the study of such literary masters as Poe, Hawthorne, Irving and Kipling, these Sophomores have come to a deeper and broader understanding of human nature

SOCIAL SCIENCES are Essential to Critical Thinking

WORLD HISTORY

Freshmen, above, pursue the history of man kind down the pages of history

AMERICAN PROBLEMS

Seniors, above, are in American Problems class where they, as junior citizens, are working with ideas and problems in many different areas of life, especially those of American Democracy

AMERICAN HISTORY

The Junior American History class, below, takes time to discuss happenings on the African Continent. Mel Simon points out countries on the "Dark Continent" that have been given their independence within the last few years

MATHEMATICS

Perfects Useful Traits and Trains Thinkers

GEOMETRY

These Sophomores are being trained in logical reasoning through the study of geometry

ALGEBRA I

HOME ECONOMICS Trains For Christian Living and Efficient Homemaking

Pat Johnson, Pat Kelley, Pat Whyte, and Mary Jo Dowd, above, have a ripping good time as they sew their first skirts

The whirr of sewing machines is a joy for these junior and senior seamstresses as they make their own choral robes. This also teaches them to share responsibility of community affairs. At machines are: Bonnie Kucera, Susan Sawicki, Helen Easterday, Betty Guthmann. Extreme right: Louise James, Sandra Mudloff. At table: Sharon Rock, Bethene Greenwalt

Esther Schneider, right, exclaims, "Get that seam straight", as Barbara Grudzinski measures the hem. These girls learn the value of participation in family life by helping one another. The other girls are: Jeanette Smith, Pat Janulewicz, Marilyn Petersen, and Carolyn Schweiger

Physical Education Develops Mental Alertness

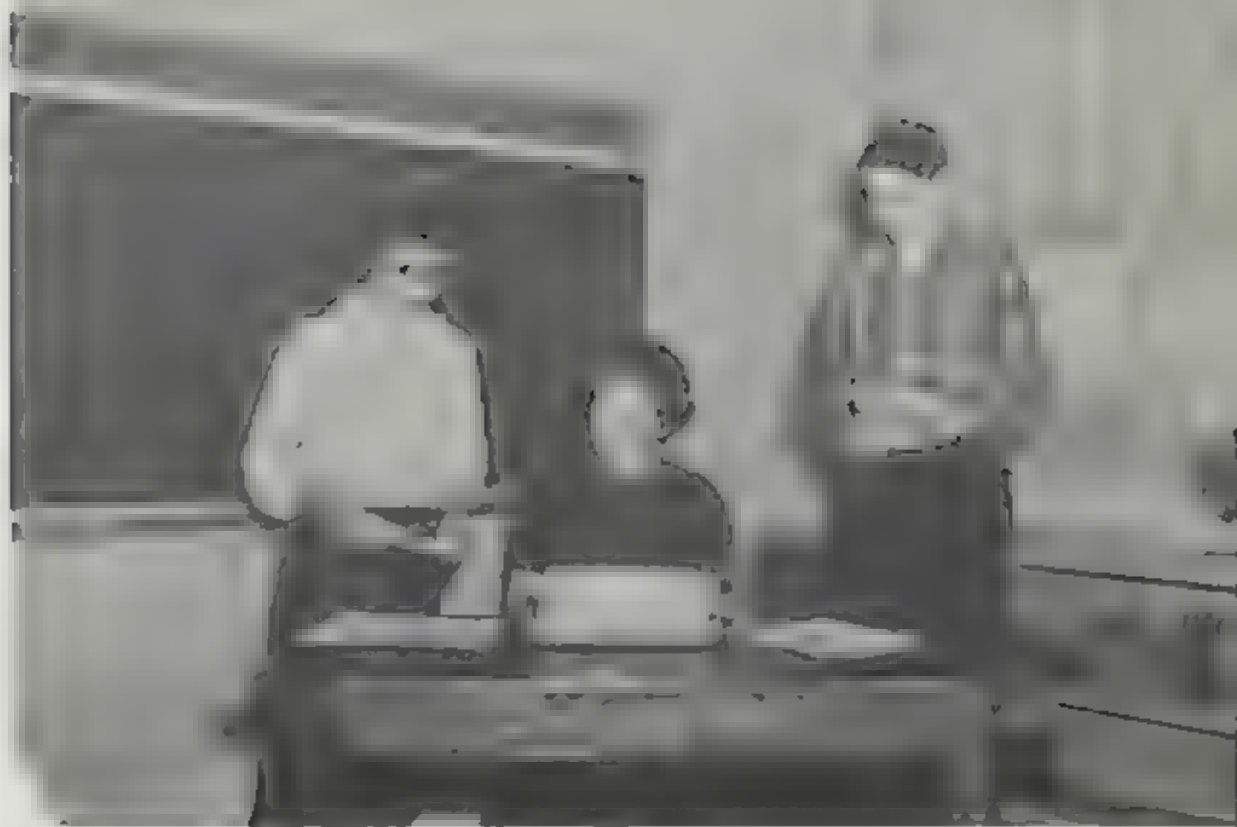

Monday and Wednesday of each week found the freshmen and sophomore girls participating and enjoying well-planned physical exercises

Freshmen and sophomore boys also enjoyed physical education classes twice a week

Father Sullivan, O M I
Conducts Retreat

Retreat Days Give Spiritual Lift

Heeding our Lord's suggestion to "Come apart and rest awhile," Central Catholic High students spent three days in retreat under the direction of Father Sullivan, O M I, McCook, Nebraska. Conferences, spiritual reading, silence and prayer filled the program for the three days from February 18-20

Retreat Conference

"Christ's invitation to you is holiness and a God-centered life. Most important commandment of God is to love one another," Father Sullivan told the students during retreat. The annual retreat at Central plays a vital part in the spiritual development of the students. Under the retreat master's direction students are spurred to better practice of their faith. It is a time out for prayer, meditation and resolutions.
